VINTAGE MEMORABILIA OF TITLETOWN, USA & THE GREEN BAY PACKERS

GRAPEVINE, TEXAS

Glen Christensen was born at St. Vincent's Hospital in Green Bay, Wisconsin. His Mother Germaine Pirlot was the first majorette with the Green Bay Packer Lumberjack Band from 1939-1944 and was hired by legendary Curley Lambeau and Wilner Burke the band director after seeing her perform at Green Bay East High School.

Glen's grandparents Herman and Ann Christensen operated a neighborhood grocery, gas and candy store on 9th Street just blocks from Lambeau Field. It was from these roots and pure Green & Gold blood that this vintage Packer memorabilia collection was born. Even after moving his family to Texas, Glen's love and adoration for the Packers only grew stronger and the collection grew larger. Featuring some of the rarest Packer items outside of the Green Bay Packer Hall of Fame, this collection is now recognized as one of the single largest privately held collections of its kind. The collection has been featured in dozens of magazines, tv and radio stations across the country and countless internet articles.

Thanks for taking time to tour our Green Bay Packer memorabilia collection. We've shown you some of our favorite items but of course, pictures can't do the collection justice. Known as one of the largest privately held vintage Packer memorabilia collections outside of Lambeau Field. We are proud and blessed to house some of the most rare Packer treasures in existence.
